Cont.Case (Civil). 904/2007

Dated this the 24th day of August, 2007

JUDGMENT

Radhakrishnan, J

Perused the judgment in W.A.387/2006 which was disposed of by this Court stating as follows:

> His further contention is that those with qualifying service between 15 and 19 shall be given one year more service towards gratifying service. This is not seen reckoned as per the statement of the KSRTC. So also extra service for accident free service is also seen reckoned. The KSRTC shall consider whether he is entitled to one year each on the said counts to be added to his qualifying service and shall revise the pension accordingly. This exercise shall be completed within a period of three months from that day and the entire benefits available shall be given to him within another two months.

2. Petitioner then filed a Review Petition No. 46/2007, which was dismissed on 15.1.2007. As per the direction given by this Court, KSRTC passed Annexure-J order dated 29.5.2007 rejecting the request of the petitioner. Petitioner appeared in person and made his submissions. We have perused the allegations raised against the respondent. In our view, no case has been made out to initiate contempt of Court proceedings. Petitioner if so advised, has to challenge Annexure-J order about which we express no opinion.

Contempt case is accordingly closed.
